PART III

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE

8. Probation of members of the service.—(i) Members of the service who are appointed against permanent vacancies shall on appointment remain on probation for a period of one year if recruited by direct appointment and 6 months if recruited other wise than by direct appointment. The probationary period may be extended in the cases of those whose work and conduct are not found satisfactory within the specified probationary period.

Explanation.—Officiating service shall be reckoned as period spent on probation, but no member of the service who is officiating in any appointment shall on completion of his period of probation be entitled to be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(ii) On the completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority may confirm such member in his appointment, or if his work or conduct has in the opinion of the appointing authority not been satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or revert him to his former post, if he has been appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment or may extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders on the expiry of the period of probation as it could have passed at the expiry of the first period of probation.

9. Seniority of members of Services.—The Seniority of members of the service shall, in each class of appointment shown in Appendix 'A', be determined by the dates of their substantive appointment to a permanent vacancy in each class:

Provided that if two or more members are appointed on the same date:

- (a) Members appointed by selection from amongst persons in the service shall be senior to members appointed otherwise and members appointed by transfer from other departments shall be senior to members appointed direct.
- (b) In the case of members who are appointed by selection from amongst persons in the Service or who are appointed by transfer from other Departments, seniority shall be determined by pay, preference being given to members drawing a higher rate of pay and if the rates of pay drawn are the same, seniority shall be determined by age, the older member being senior to the younger member.
- (c) In the case of members who are appointed direct on the same date, the older member shall be senior to the younger member:

Provided further that if any member is reverted to his former post and is subsequently promoted to the post from which he reverted, the date of his appointment for the purpose of this rule shall be such date as the appointing authority may determine.

9. Examination.—Every clerk shall have to pass an examination appropriate to his grade before he is confirmed as given in the syllabus at Appendix 'C'.

10. Reservation of vacancies for Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribes.—Vacancies in the service which are filled otherwise than by promotion shall be apportioned, as far as possible, between the Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes and other in such ratio as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time.

11. Pay of members of service.—A member of the service holding any appointment specified in the appendix 'A' shall, from the date of joining his appointment, be entitled to the scale of pay shown against such appointment.

Nothing in these rules shall affect the inherent right of Government to increase or reduce the scale of pay now prescribed in the appendix either permanently or temporarily, for future entrants to the service.

12. Area of liability to transfer.—Members of the service are liable to be transferred from posts within their respective classes of appointment other such posts, under the orders of the Director, to any place in the Himachal Pradesh or under the orders of the appointing authority as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time, within the jurisdiction of such authority.

13. Pensions.—Members of the Service shall be entitled to pension in accordance with the Civil Service Regulations, as applied from time to time by the Government.

14. General.—In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by such general rules as are deemed to have been or may hereafter be framed by Government or under the provision of the Constitution of India until provision in that behalf is made by or under an Act by the State Legislature.

- (vi) Budders out of the Beldars and ploughmen provided that they have put in 5 years service at a Horticultural Farm.

8. Method of recruitment for the service.—The posts in the service shall be filled in the case of :—

- (a) Agricultural Inspectors, Technical Assistants, Research Assistants and Assistant Bio-Chemists (Compost) by direct recruitment or by transfer from any other State in the Union of India.
- (b) Field Assistant, Assistant Agricultural Inspectors by direct recruitment or by promotion from amongst the Agricultural Sub-Inspectors and literate beldars and ploughmen.

When any vacancy occurs or is about to occur in the service, the appointing authority shall determine in what manner such vacancy shall be filled.

Explanation:—Training of directly appointed recruits.

A candidate directly appointed as a Field Assistant, Assistant Agricultural Inspector or Budder without any proper training, shall be attached to a Farm for necessary training for a period of six months before being appointed as a full-fledged Field Assistant, Assistant Agricultural Inspector and/or budder, at a Government Farm or nursery or on District work. He shall not draw any increment till he has passed the prescribed test and the director certifies that the incumbent has the requisite knowledge to work as Field Assistant/Assistant Agricultural Inspector or Budder, as the case may be:

Provided that it will be open to the Director to reduce or enhance the period of training of such recruits.

9. Probation of members of service.—

- (i) Members of the service who are appointed to any post specified in appendix 'A' shall remain on probation for a period of one year in the first instance in all cases whether recruited by direct appointment or by transfer or promoted from amongst the existing staff.

Explanation:—Approved officiating service shall be reckoned as period spent on probation; but no member who is officiating in any appointment shall on the completion of the probationary period of one year be entitled to be confirmed until he is appointed against a permanent post.

(ii) If the work or conduct of any member during the period of probation is in the opinion of the appointing authority not satisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his service, or revert him to his former post if he has been recruited otherwise than by direct appointment. This course shall not be deemed to be dismissal or removal or reduction to reversion to a lower post.

(iii) On completion of the period of probation of any member, the appointing authority may if the vacancy exists, confirm such member in his appointment or if his work or conduct has in the opinion of the appointing authority been unsatisfactory, the appointing authority may dispense with his services or revert him to his former post if he has been recruited otherwise than by direct appointment or extend the period of probation and thereafter pass such orders as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation:

Provided that the Agricultural Inspectors, Technical Assistants, Research Assistants and Assistant Bio-Chemists (Compost) will not be confirmed unless they have been exempted from or have passed an examination, the Syllabus of which is contained in Appendix 'D'. Failure to pass the prescribed test within the period of probation unless the Director has granted exemption from such examination, will be considered unsatisfactory work for the purpose of this rule.

10. Seniority of the members of the service.—The seniority of the members of the service shall in each class of post shown in Appendix 'A' be determined by the dates of their substantive appointments to such post:

Provided that if two or more members are appointed on the same day:—

(a) members appointed by selection from amongst persons in service shall be senior to members appointed otherwise and members appointed by transfer from other departments shall be senior to members appointed direct.

(b) In case of members who are appointed by selection from amongst members in the service or who are appointed by transfer from other departments of the Government, seniority shall be determined according to pay preference being given to a member drawing a higher rate of pay and if the rates of pay drawn are the same, seniority shall be determined by the length of service preference being given to a member having the longest service and if the length of service is also the same, seniority shall be determined according to age, the older member being senior to a younger member.

(c) In the case of members who are appointed direct on the same date, the older member shall be senior to the younger member.

Provided further that if any member is reverted to his former post and is subsequently re-appointed to the post from which he reverted, the date of his appointment for the purpose of this rule shall be such date as the appointing authority may determine.

11. Area of liability to transfer.—Members of the service are liable to be transferred under the orders of the Director from posts within their respective classes of appointment to other such posts anywhere in Himachal Pradesh or under orders of the appointing authority within the jurisdiction of such authority.

12. Liability of vaccination and revaccination.—Every member of the service shall have himself vaccinated and re-vaccinated when Government by a special or general order may so direct.

13. Pay of members of service.—A member of the Service holding any appointment specified in Appendix 'A' shall from the date of joining his appointment, be entitled to the scale of pay shown against such appointment.

Nothing in these rules shall affect the inherent right of the Government to increase or reduce the scale of pay now prescribed in the appendix either permanently or temporarily, for future entrants to the service.

14. Pension of members of Service.—Members of the Service shall be entitled to pension in accordance with the Civil Service Regulations as applied from time to time by the Government.

15. Reservation of vacancies for Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes.—Vacancies in the Service which are filled otherwise than by promotion shall be apportioned as far as possible between the Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes and others in such ratio as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time.

16. General.—In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, the members of the service shall be governed by such general rules as are deemed to have been or may hereafter be framed by Government by or under the provision of the Constitution of India until provision in that behalf is made by or under an Act by the State Legislature.
